Chapter 1 by Sophie

The last thing I remember was eating Mc. Donalds with my boyfriend, Charlie, (but I call him Char) and we were talking about what we were planning what do when we got older. And that was it.

Now I was in my room, and everything looked perfectly fine. my white curtains coved most of my window, my bed was made, everything was fine.

But on something was different.

"Mom! Are you home?" no response. "Dad?" no response. "Joey? Skyler?" no response.

I ran down the stairs and searched the whole house. I didn't find anything. I went out into the front yard of my freakishly large house and found nothing. I didn't find my cat or my dog, any of the neighbors, anything.

But the weird thing was, everything looked...perfect.
